

MONTHLY MEANDERS

BOARD BANTER

Happy New Year to everyone. I hope this article finds everyone in good health and enjoying the winter as best we can without being on the bike outside. I hope everyone enjoyed the holiday season and had the opportunity to spend time with friends and family catching up on the years events. Now it is time to move forward and start planning events for 2011.

Hopefully the winter months are flying by, but everyone is finding time to stay in shape. Mitch organized a hike this past Saturday and has volunteered to do so a couple more times. For those of you that were able to join the hike, I hope it was enjoyable. For others of us, we spend time and money working out indoor on the stationary bikes which do start to get very boring this time of the year. We use things like competition (provided by CompuTrainer classes), videos, music, or any other distraction to trick our minds into thinking we actually enjoy riding indoors. But we know that March will be here soon enough so we need to stay in shape to be ready for cycling season.

The Wheelman will begin the Show N Go rides on 3/2 that will not count for miles. These rides are usually for those that grew up in the North Pole, but are a great warm up for the season. The St Pats pre-ride or club mileage accumulation initiation starts 3/20/11. The ride schedule is posted on the website. This is what most of us use for motivation to continue those long indoor training sessions..... just think only six weeks left.

Brian and I have volunteered to once again plan this year's ride schedule, this will be our fifth year as Ride Chairs. We do the best we can and hopefully address most people's riding requirements. We would like to take the opportunity to thank the club members who have been very gracious and cooperative in supporting the ride schedule and volunteering to host the rides. Without the cooperation of the club members, we could not successfully sponsor so many rides for all to enjoy. We even have members that will ask to host a ride should a cancellation occur. There are a handful of members that will email and communicate that construction is occurring in a specific area over a specific time frame or suggest a route change for our consideration. Several of the members do the routes for us (like the Schneider's or Geis's) which is really appreciated. SO THANKS TO EVERYONE FOR MAKING THIS SUCH A GREAT CLUB! Looking forward to a great 2011 season.

Mary Lucille Myslis, 53, died peacefully on Dec. 8, 2010, surrounded by her loved ones, at Condell Hospital in Libertyville. Mary fought a short but courageous battle with ovarian cancer. Mary was a rare treasure to all who knew her, was so loved and will be dearly missed. She was a loving and devoted daughter, sister and aunt.

Mary was born Sept. 20, 1957, to Robert S. and Deirdre Allen Myslis in Elgin. Mary graduated from Highland Park High School in 1975 and Lawrence University in 1980, with a Bachelor of Music in Piano Performance and a Bachelor of Arts in British History. Mary spent her junior year studying abroad in London, England, and lived in Scotland the following summer. Following graduation, Mary pursued a teaching career. She taught piano for 25 years, using the Suzuki method. Her students loved coming to her cozy apartment in Libertyville and meeting her cats. Mary's creative and fun teaching methods endeared her to her young pupils. Her passions were many. She particularly loved traveling with her sisters and friends, and visiting medieval castles and their ruins. She traveled to Europe many times, including Italy and France. Other passions included movies, trivia contests, classical music and opera, pianist Maurizio Pollini, apples, baking apple pies, horses, and watching the Chicago Bears, Green Bay Packers, the Tour de France and figure skating competitions. Mary's significant other, Jim Beloian, introduced her to cycling and she began riding competitively in 1998. She loved road racing, criteriums and cyclocross competitions. Mary had many cycling friends, who loved her competitive spirit and engaging personality. Mary and Jim traveled throughout the United States on long distance cycling tours. She was preceded in death by her mother. She is survived by her father; her sisters, Laura, Sarah and Andrea (Eichrodt); brother-in-law, Chris Eichrodt; her niece, Molly; her nephew, Nico; Jim Beloian; and her beloved cats, Thomas, Benny and Baby Girl. She will be remembered for living her life to the fullest, her generosity, and kind spirit, animated by a lively sense of humor. Her wonderful soul and sweet smile will live in our hearts forever. Mary's memorial service will take place on Saturday, December 18 at 3 p.m. with a reception to follow at First Presbyterian Church, 219 W. Maple Ave., Libertyville. Memorial donations to Orphans of the Storm (www.orphansofthestorm.org) or the Ovarian Cancer Fund (www.ocrf.org) would be appreciated. Published in Chicago Suburban Daily Herald on December 15, 2010

Mary's Eulogy

This is a quote I read at Art Cunningham's memorial service and I thought it was relevant today, too. "The deep pain that is felt at the death of every friendly soul, arises from the feeling, that there is in every individual something which is inexpressible, peculiar to her alone, and is therefore, absolutely and irretrievably lost."

I met Mary a number of years ago through the Wheeling Wheelmen bike club and as you all know first-hand, it was easy to become friends with her. She would always create a buzz in the parking lot before a ride when we knew Mary was coming. You'd hear, "Mary's coming today" or "Did you hear, Mary's riding today?" You just knew if you were going to ride with her, you'd have to dig deep and bring your "A" game.

In the early years I only saw Mary at the beginning of a ride as she came flying into the parking lot running late as usual, sometimes wearing her helmet and bike shoes in the car. Yeah that was a comical sight. Or I would catch up with her after the ride at the Bakery over lunch.

At first I wasn't a strong enough rider to hang on her wheel. Actually very few of us were. But she always had an encouraging word or some advice. As the years went by I got stronger and on one ride she slowed down enough so we could ride together. On that ride she taught me proper drafting technique. Showing me how to read the wind direction and then position myself to take the most advantage of that sweet spot when in a pace line. And I would need every advantage I could get if I would ever be able to ride with her.

Eventually over the years I got stronger and one summer to my delight was able to hang on Mary's wheel. It wasn't easy because Mary gave 110% on every ride. But you knew if you hung on, you were in for one heck of a ride.

I still remember one Bakery ride last year. There was a small group of us on Mary's wheel. We were heading down Gilmer Road all excited that we were averaging 19 mph for the ride up to that point. Mary finally got tired and drifted toward the back and I took over the pull. I wasn't going to let Mary down. She had given us all she could and I wanted to return the favor. So digging deep I kept the pace up until Mary rested enough to take the lead again. She would never stay in the back very long. When she took over the pull she was there as always with a compliment and encouragement. Coming from her that meant so much to me, even to this day. That ride was the fastest I ever rode that route and all the credit goes to Mary.

I went to visit Mary in the hospital a few days after she was admitted. While I was there, she decided she wanted to get out of bed and walk a lap or two around the halls. So we unhooked her cords and off she went. She kept apologizing she was a bit slow, but even then, where was I? Tucked right behind her like a pace line, letting her set the pace.

I've been trying to make sense of why Mary's life was cut way too short. What I came up with was this. If even one woman learned something about ovarian cancer and it saves their life then Mary's death is not in vain. I know even in her passing Mary continued to teach me something new.

Mary, may the wind be at your back, the sun always shine on your face, and the road flatten to meet you. Be sure to leave a cue sheet at heaven's gates so we can catch up to you, Art Cunningham and Bob Savio. Thank you for your friendship, quirky sense of humor and for helping me be a better rider. And don't worry your secret on how to climb hills faster is safe with me.

LIB Extra - from the League of Illinois Bicyclists

Bicycling Wins Big in Grant Announcement

This fall, over $50 Million in federal Transportation Enhancements grants went to new Illinois trails and bikeways in a major advocacy success. Gov. Quinn announced over $89 Million in grants, including 66 projects directly relevant to bicycling. See the list at www.bikelib.org.

The state gets to decide how these federal grants are distributed among 12 eligible project types, and bike projects had been deemphasized in recent years. IDOT and the Governor (personally) heard our pleas to emphasize bicycling, protect the funding source from disproportionate cuts, and improve the selection process. All requests were heeded. The result – a record amount for Illinois bicycling (by far) over the 20-year history of the Enhancements program.

“Share the Road” License Plate Sign-Up Passes Halfway Point

Over 800 Illinois drivers have already submitted reservations for the state’s new “Share the Road” license plates. Bike club members are invited to sign up and pass the word – so we can start seeing the plates on the road soon. The Secretary of State will begin production after 1500 reservation forms have been received. We hope to reach that mark by spring – please help us!

The plates will have a one-time $29 switchover fee, plus an annual incremental fee of $22. Most of the latter fee will go to LIB for our various programs to educate motorists and bicyclists on sharing the road.

Go online to www.bikelib.org for the reservation form and instructions on the two-step purchase process, plus FAQs.

Temporary plates had previously been available each year through LIB and the state for National Bicycle Month; but the plates were only valid for April and May. With the new, LIB-proposed plate, Illinois joins 12 other states with permanent, year-round “Share the Road” license plates.

Need some inspiration to get back on your bike? Well come join Mikes Bike Shop for our bicycle-themed movie night!

Meet us at Emmett’s in Palatine at 7:00PM and enjoy some of their delicious food and beverages while we take in one of the greatest cycling films of all time. This year we’ll be watching A Sunday in Hell on February 24th so SAVE THE DATE!
