

MONTHLY MEANDERS

BOARD BANTER

March 2018

AAH, the Anticipation!

I just spent a weekend cross-country skiing, came home to a driveway full of snow, now I'm supposed to write about a bike ride schedule. I guess that means things are looking up!

We had a great year in 2017, and the schedule for 2018 is similar. The Wednesday morning No Drop Road Ride was extremely successful and continues this year, with Dennis Ellertson as host. Wednesday evening's Hill and Dale Ride showed some improved attendance toward the end of last season, and Jeff Rossi has agreed to host again this year.

A special thank-you to our other regular hosts as well. Kilian Emanuel is again hosting the Bakery Rides, Paul LeFevre will host on Thursday evenings, Frank Bing and Emily Qualich will share Fridays over the summer for the Libertyville rides. And we welcome Jorn Lim to the group of regulars – Jorn will host Tuesday evenings.

The rest of the ride schedule is similar to last year, with some adjustments and adding back a couple of rides that have been off the schedule in recent years.

Schedule and Hosting

The schedule is posted on the website as well as being published in the newsletter each month, so keep up to date for possible changes. As a rule, we will try to avoid changes once a monthly schedule appears in the newsletter, but any last minute changes, such as cancellation due to weather, will be communicated via the Yahoo group.

We are in good shape for hosts through April but there are several openings after that. We have made signing up to host a little easier. Simply check the schedule on the website. Wherever there is an opening to host, there is a link in the host column that brings you to a page describing the host process, and including an email link to sign up. Or you can simply email me at dave.waycie@gmail.com.

I'll send you a confirming email shortly, then send cue sheets and a signup sheet prior to the ride date. It's easy and appreciated.

GPS Anyone?

Several members have suggested we provide GPS files for our routes, and we will be doing that this year. I plan to have GPX and TRX files available for all rides other than the Bakery routes and Honey Do routes.

The GPS files as well as cue sheets will be available through the Yahoo group, Details will follow. If you are not on the Yahoo group, this is a good time to join. Instructions are in this newsletter.

I'm looking forward to another great year of riding with the Wheeling Wheelmen and hope to see you all on the road.
